- ❖ RPK Rule 12.05 <https://rpk.org/our-party/>

RPK Rule 12.05. Republican Integrity:

- a) During a general election, any registered Republican who has publicly supported the opponent of a Republican nominee for local, statewide, or national office may be ineligible to hold any Party office for a period of two years following that General Election in which said Republican nominee was on the ballot. Any dispute to this rule shall be referred to the Membership Committee, who after review, will make a recommendation to the Executive Committee pursuant to Rule 2.09(e).
- b) Any person who did not support the Republican Presidential Nominee during the most recent presidential election shall not be elected to be a delegate or an alternate delegate to the District, State, or National Conventions, respectively.
- c) The RSCC Executive Committee may vote to disavow a candidate who, in its judgment, exhibits excessively immoral or illegal behavior unbecoming of a representative of the Republican Party. Any five (5) members of the Executive Committee may submit a letter to the State Chairman requesting such action be taken. The State Chairman shall then conduct a meeting of the RSCC Executive Committee to consider such action. A three-fourths (3/4) majority of members present shall be required to disavow a candidate. Party members who publicly oppose a candidate disavowed by the RSCC Executive Committee shall be exempt from the penalties outlined by Rule 12.05(a).

- ❖ RPK Rule 4.07 <https://rpk.org/our-party/>

RPK Rule 4.07. Dues: The County Committee, by majority vote, may establish annual dues for its membership. The failure to pay dues by August 31st of each year shall constitute cause for removal of any member.
