

HARDIN COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY
RESOLUTION – REPUBLICAN INTEGRITY
(RPK Rule 12.05)

Whereas, Julie Cantwell, a registered Hardin County Republican, vigorously campaigned for Kentucky Democrat Governor, Andy Beshear’s re-election in the November 2023 general election; and

Whereas, Julie Cantwell, posted malicious rhetoric on social media directed at the Republican candidate, his house of worship, and his religious beliefs; and

Whereas, Julie Cantwell, a registered Hardin County Republican, publicized her support and endorsement for the Democrat candidate, John Whipple in the November 2024 general election; and

Whereas, Julie Cantwell, helped the Democrat candidate, Cherlyn Smith, in the November 2024 general election; and

Whereas, Julie Cantwell would cast aspersions against Republican candidate, Donald J. Trump publicly; and

Whereas, Julie Cantwell participated in the Petition to collect signatures for the Independent Presidential candidate, Robert F. Kennedy Jr. to be on the Kentucky ballot; and

Whereas, Julie Cantwell, a registered Hardin County Republican, publicized her support and endorsement for the Independent Presidential candidate, Robert F. Kennedy Jr. in the November 2024 general election; and

Whereas, the Republican Party of Kentucky Rule 12.05 (a) Republican Integrity states: During a general election, any registered Republican who has publicly supported the opponent of a Republican nominee for local, statewide, or national office may be ineligible to hold any Party office for a period of two years following that General Election in which said Republican nominee was on the ballot; and

Whereas, the Republican Party of Kentucky Rule 12.05 (b) Republican Integrity states: Any person who did not support the Republican Presidential Nominee during the most recent presidential election shall not be elected to be a delegate or an alternate delegate to the District, State, or National Conventions, respectively; be it

Resolved, That the Hardin County Republican Party of Kentucky, holds Julie Cantwell accountable for her actions concerning Republican Integrity and she is ineligible to hold any Party office for a period two (2) years in which said Republican nominee was on the ballot; and

Resolved, That the Hardin County Republican Party of Kentucky, holds Julie Cantwell accountable for her actions concerning Republican Integrity and she shall not be elected to be a delegate or an alternate delegate to the District, State, or National Convention in 2028.